Community Tasting Notes (average 92 pts. in 1 note)

Tasted by Kdawg on 1/22/2009 & rated 92 points: Mark De Grazia selections: 05 Barolos, 04 Brunellos, 06 Barbarescos (MK, Chicago IL): nose: quite the contrast to the 03 that was right next to it. Sweet perfumes emit from the glass with rounded tones of earth, tobacco, black cherries, various spice and lovely tones of roasted herbs. A bit tight, but the nose is very attractive already taste: Big tannins, but with a wonderful smooth medium feel to it with deep tones of earth, perfumes, tobacco, black cherries, roasted herbs, and all sorts of dark florals overall: a lovely wine that will require patience. Classic Livio Sassetti and should be able to offer up lots of nuance when it comes around. Great feel and texture, this is a butterfly hiding in its cocoon, but the potential is there (99 views)
